

What would have been if...?

Work on a prospective Historical Museum for Bosnia-Herzegovina in Sarajevo

a workshop arranged by Michael Fehr, Berlin | Bettina Habsburg-Lothringen, Graz | Asja Mandic and Azra Salihbasic-Selimovic, Sarajevo

a collaboration between the Institute for Art in Context, University of the Arts, Berlin with the Museumsakademie Joanneum, Graz /A and supported by the Goethe-Institute Sarajevo

May 21-23, 2009
at the Goethe-Institute Sarajevo

Program

Thursday, 21.05.2009

6pm                      First meeting of all participants at the Goethe-Institute

                                 Introduction by Michael Fehr

                                 Presentation of the research results by the different teams from Sarajevo and Berlin

                                 How to collect a city? Statement by Bettina Habsburg

                                 Make a plan for the next day / two days: what and how we collect

Friday, 22.05.2009,

9 am-5pm              "street work"

5pm                      meeting at the Goethe-Institute. Presentation and discussion of the results of research

8pm                      dinner

Saturday, 23.05.2009

9.30am                 make a decision, how to represent the results and preparation of the presentation

6pm                      presentation of the collection